Mrs. Jacob Kamm (Florence Bonnell) who has been the house guest of Mrs. William Connell Dyer for a few days, returned to her home in Portland Monday evening.

Mrs. Louis W. Jesso (Harriett Barker) arrived home Thursday from Roseburg, where she has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barker.

The market seems to have quieted down and no changes are recorded today. Part of this dullness is due to the proposal of the government to control grain prices. And again, many farmers who have the grain are not anxious to sell.

Each day brings several families home from their favorite outing places, and soon the summer contingent will all be back in town again. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Locke who have been passing their two weeks outing at the Breyman summer home in Seal Rocks, were among those coming home this week. They returned Wednesday.

On the same day, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker and Mrs. Baker's sister, Mrs. Delahoyde of Cripple Creek, returned from Seal Rocks, after spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker at their cottage.

Much regret is felt over the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Elton W. Moreland who, with their three children, have gone to Portland to make their home.

Mr. Moreland, who was in the public service commission, has been in Portland since his resignation a month or so ago, and is now consulting engineer in that city.

Mrs. Moreland and the children joined him only last week and will be missed by their many friends.

At the Hotel Dalles Wednesday evening Charles W. Erskine, an attorney of Bend, Or., and Miss Helen McGuire, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Thompson, were married by Rev. Nathan Evans of the Methodist church. B. A. Stover, Bend, and Miss Colin Gavin, The Dalles were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine have gone to Lake Louise, Canada, for a honeymoon trip, and will make their home at Bend. Mr. and Mrs. Erskine met at Salem during the last session of the state legislature.—Portland Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. William May are returning at Cascadia, having motored there several days ago. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Munkers of Portland are with them.

Honoring Mrs. Mary Osborn on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, Mrs. Anna Brook and Mrs. A. H. Jackson gave a jolly surprise party at her home near Hopewell Wednesday night. A supper preceded the party, and the house was decorated in a yellow and green color scheme, with fragrant flowers.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. Claggett, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Conley, Mrs. Anna Brook, Mrs. Nell Jones, Mrs. A. Jackson, Mrs. Katherine Jigger, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Dan Jigger, Gibson Osborn, Joe Jigger, Robert Bailey, Mr. Wyant and John Jigger.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey are back from a two weeks outing at Newport.

Laurence Hofer motored home from Agate Beach Thursday for a few days and will return the latter part of the week.

Monday, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McNary and the Misses Overtrude and Margaret Gray returned from a delightful motor trip to the popular Tillamook resorts.

They accompanied the girls father, George B. Gray, of Seattle who left for his home Tuesday.

During their absence they visited Bay Ocean, Neak-Kah-Nie, Cannon Beach, Seaside and Astoria, remaining over night at each place.

The lawn surrounding the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Jr., 2030 North Commercial street, was the scene of a delightful surprise party, Tuesday afternoon, when friends and relatives gathered to celebrate the seventieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Johnson's grandmother, Mrs. Mandna Valentine. The affair was a complete surprise to the honored celebrant, and she was showered with attractive gifts and flowers.

The out of town relatives and friends gathering for the occasion were, Mrs. Rose Davenport of Kellogg, Idaho, a daughter of the honor guest; Mrs. Mary Cutler and Mrs. Rose Ellis of Dallas, Mrs. Anna Murray of Portland, Mrs. Lettie Jones of Forest Grove and Miss Myrtle Leach, who recently has returned from China.

Other guests were Mrs. H. V. Garver, Mrs. Roy B. Gilbert, Mrs. J. B. Boyall, Mrs. V. Nadstaneck, Mrs. H. G. Thurston, Miss Anna Speerlin, Mrs. E. B. Copeland, Miss Jessie Edwards, Mrs. A. Schiber, Mrs. E. R. Murray, Mrs. E. Dillman, Lotus Valentine, Mrs. H. Glaskin, Mrs. Lettie Johnson, Mrs. Mary Mitchell, Mrs. J. V. Valentine, Mrs. Flora Beck, Mrs. Agnes Gardner, Mary Trober, Eulalia Way, Mrs. A. C. Steffler, Mrs. Mabel Knapp, Mrs. Alice Walker, Mrs. P. Prickey, Mrs. R. Stiffler, and a number of children.

William Connell Dyer returned yesterday from Yellowstone Park, where he and a party of 200 other members of "The Hundred thousand dollar club of the Missouri State Life Insurance company, have been enjoying their annual outing.

Captain and Mrs. Walter L. Toose and their son, Walter III, and Lieutenant Leslie Toose arrived in Salem yesterday from the Presidio, San Francisco, and will be here until Captain and Lieutenant Toose are commissioned to their respective posts.

There has been an increase in work days during the past year in the businesses under the industrial compensation act of 49.4 per cent and a decrease for the corresponding time in accidents of 48 per cent, according to a report published yesterday afternoon by the industrial accident commission. This is a small decrease in accidents in comparison to the number of men working and the work days but it indicates that although the number of work days are greater than ever before the ratio of accidents has not increased.

In July 1916 the total work days was 820,634, with six fatal accidents and a total of 892 accidents; in June 1917, there was a total of 1,225,975 work days, with 17 fatal accidents, and 1321 other accidents. The lowest months for general accidents was February 1917 while the largest were November 1916 and June 1917.

Plans for the separation of the grade crossings on the Rex-Tigard road over the Southern Pacific line are under way in the office of the state highway engineer, according to a statement of Highway Engineer Nunn this morning. The plans are being made on advice of the public service commission that the grades are dangerous. The engineer's office was instructed to prepare the plans two weeks ago by Commissioner Miller. The crossing at Botaw is what is known as an "under" crossing in that the road goes under the track while that at Tigard is an "over" crossing in that it goes above the track.

Larene W. Walls, formerly of this city and formerly connected with the state highway department, who is now a merchant at Fossil, stopped in at the state highway office this morning on his way to Portland. He came up from the south and left this morning northward.

Carl Gabrielson, employed in secretary of State Olcott's office, and Roy Barth, employed in the bank examiner's office, leave Monday for Portland, where on Tuesday they will take the boat for San Francisco. They will enter the second reserve officer's training camp at the Presidio on August 25.

Miss Adelta Nya, stenographer in State Superintendent of Public Instruction Churchill's office, will leave Salem Monday for a two week's vacation at Gearhart. Miss Marie Schwab, who has been on her vacation of two weeks will return to the office on Monday and resume her usual work.

A. P. Dunphy, night editor of the Bozeman Chronicle, Bozeman, Montana, stepped off here this morning to pay C. Ed Ross, secretary of the state highway commission, a visit before proceeding to San Francisco, where he will enter the second reserve officers training camp. He is a cousin of Secretary Ross. He expects to visit the Oregon coast a few days before reporting at the Presidio next Saturday. He likes the appearance of the Willamette valley well.

The Pacific Grain company of Portland filed articles of incorporation with the corporation commissioner this morning with a capital of $250,000 to do a dockage and wharfage business, and also to deal in grain and hay. The incorporators are Sherman C. Draper, J. P. Hohen and Ralph Wilbur.

Certificate of decrease of capitalization of the Elmira Lumber company from $150,000 to $100,000 was filed also. The first organization of its kind in America came into being in Seattle Thursday evening, when women of Seattle and southern Washington who have been interested themselves in behalf of the enlisted motherless soldiers met and organized "The War Mothers League of America." The objects of this league are to try, as nearly as possible to fill the place of a mother; to write letters of cheer and comfort; to send little things that only mothers think of; to interest themselves in the physical, mental and moral well being of the boys before their leaving and while at the front, and continue the interest in them after their return. The women now number 55 in Seattle and 12 in the southern part of the state, around South Bend. They have opened the organization for a few weeks for charter members. Young girls are not eligible—the work is purely a mothers' work.—Journal.

MANY BIG DRAMATIC MOMENTS IN PHOTOPLAY "Captain of the Grey Horse Troop" Possesses Picturesque and Moving scenes

There are many picturesque and moving scenes in the Vitagraph's visualization of Hamlin Garland's novel, "The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop" which comes to the Liberty theater on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. One of the most touching moments is the glimpse of the Indian wife Lithe Willow, bowed in grief over the body of her husband, Cut Finger. Cut Finger killed a settler who attempted to insult Lithe Willow. The unscrupulous settlers, cowmen and herd ers unite to wipe out the so-called "outrage." When the young Indian is lodged in jail by the Captain of the Grey Horse Troop, George Curtis, to await fair trial, the ruthless pioneers force their way into the prison and kill the redskin.

This is one of the dramatic moments of the photodrama, which reveals the development of the American Indian from early days to the present. "The Captain of the Grey Horse Troop," although a romantic love story of the frontier, is at heart an epic of the redskin. Hamlin Garland knows the Indian much as Frederick Remington the artist understood him.

PAULINE FREDERICK "HER BETTER SELF" FAMOUS PLAYERS-PARAMOUNT

"Her Better Self," Pauline Frederick's latest Famous Players picture on the Paramount program was written by Margaret Turnbull, directed by Robert G. Vignola and photographed by Ned Van Buren. This combination alone would insure its success and the excellent cast which has been added makes it one of the finest productions appearing this season. Director Vignola has been the director of many of Pauline Frederick's former sensational successes, and Mr. Van Buren, the photographer, promises many exceptionally beautiful photographic effects, among them, the filming of Miss Frederick's reckless auto race against time, which it is said is the most graphic ever pictured. "Her Better Self" is the attraction at the Oregon theater Sunday and Monday.

Portland, Or., Aug. 18.—Peaceful settlement of a threatened strike in Portland's steel shipyards was promised today.

No Strike in Washington

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 18.—A general I. W. W. strike in the state of Washington, to enforce the demands of the organization that I. W. W. held in jails in the eastern part of the state be released, is not probable according to Herbert Mahler, former secretary and now publicity agent at the local I. W. W. headquarters.

Mahler declared today that the release of fifty of the fifty four prisoners held by the Ellensburg authorities since early in June, showed clearly that the demands of the organization would be recognized.

"If this is the case," said Mahler, "of course there will be no strike."
